

May 22, 1942.

Mr. Leniel Hooker,
510 Montague St.,
Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Leniel:

I just received your letter and am hastening to send your contract to you.

Your absence is certainly causing us a lot of headaches, Dandridge sprained his ankle, which means we are short still another man. I do hope your Board will permit you to return to Newark in time to join us Sunday at the latest.

We are playing tonight(Friday) May 22nd in Baltimore, and tomorrow Saturday afternoon at Norbeck, Md., this is a little town just outside of Baltimore, where we played last year. If by any chance you could get your affairs straightened out in time to join us in Baltimore Saturday Morning in time for the game in Norbeck Saturday afternoon, I would certainly be grateful. In that case you could meet us at the York Hotel in Baltimore by noon Saturday, if not, we will be hoping you will arrive in Newark in time for Sundays games. It is too bad you did not have your contract with you.

Sincerely hope you will be able to join us soon.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ